INDIANS ARE TO VISIT HERE

Northwest Athletes May Attend Proposed Polynesian Olympic.

Alex. Hume Ford writes that the allied Indian tribes of Alaska and the Northwest will send teams to Hawaii to contest at the Polynesian Olympic whenever that may be held here, and Ford says it's a go. He writes that he spent a day at the Salem Industrial School and left the Indian students with a better knowledge of Hawaii and a burning determination to send teams down here to try conclusions with our best athletes in foot-racing, baseball and canoeing.

HOME PLAYERS HAVE TRYOUT

All-Hawaiian Team Loosens Up Muscles in First Practise.

For the first turn-out in months, the fourteen baseball players who showed up at the league grounds yesterday afternoon were not bad at all, at all. Of course, their hands were tender, and it only took a short time of playing to make them a trifle sore, but on the whole Captain Fernandez feels well satisfied.

Many of the oldtimers were out in their respective club uniforms, but the majority of them wore their street clothes and ball shoes. The first practise necessarily was an easy one. Stiff muscles were loosened up by the simple process of throwing the ball, and after the boys had really warmed up, they were called out on the diamond and given fielding and batting practise.

Just as a gentle reminder, it might be stated that the diamond at the league grounds is in anything but the best of condition. The grass needs cutting, and it would do no harm whatever to have the heavy roller smash the diamond proper into better shape.

The boys worked out for a little over an hour, and then practise was discontinued.

TEMPORARY ARENA BEING REMOVED

The tiers of wooden seats, the tug-of-war platform and the flooring used for athletic sports in the old fishmarket building while the Atlantic and Pacific fleets were here, are being removed and the market will be restored to its normal condition. Workmen began yesterday morning to demolish the structures and will have them all out of the way in a day or two.

A GREAT DRAMATIC ATTRACTION COMING

The specially selected company of character artists picked by Leibler & Co., under the direction of J. C. Williamson, for the Australian tour of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," will present that quaint comedy of life among the lowly at the Honolulu Opera House January 7 and 8. The play itself is the successful drama which has been written around the life of "Mrs. Wiggs" and that of "Lovey Mary" and their neighbors. Theatergoers feel kindly toward Mrs. Wiggs, and thousands who have read Mrs. Rice's book recall her first glimpse. Mrs. Wiggs is now a permanent figure upon the American and English stages, the central character of a quaint character play dramatized from Mrs. Rice's book by her friend and neighbor, Mrs. Anne Crawford Flexner. It was beyond doubt from the start that Mrs. Wiggs would eventually find herself before the footlights, for her popularity in book form reached almost at once a height achieved by few creations of the novelist. Everybody has been charmed by the cheerful Christian philosophy of this bright-faced little woman who thought it "sinful to fuss" and whose constant prayer was, "O Lord, keep me from getting sour." Though so humble in type, she has become a sort of incarnation of the spirit of optimism, and some of her quaint, homely sayings bid fair to pass into household maxims. But interesting as is the character of Mrs. Wiggs, she is hard pressed for honors by the characters of Mis' Hazy, Mr. Stubbins, and Lovey Mary. In these characters Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Flexner have created types of humor so clean cut in every salient feature as to have formed in the hands of a less prodigious dramatist the central figures of four plays. The cast of players includes Miss Ada Dwyer in the role of Mrs. Wiggs, John Webber will portray Mr. Stubbins, and Helen Lowell has been reengaged for her original role of Mis' Hazy. Others in the cast are Miss Lottie Alter, Florence Bushy, J. W. Smiley, Eugene Shakespeare, A. W. Maflin, Helen Raymond, Jennie Reiffarth and Richard Allen.

WHOLESALE LICENSES WANTED BY DEALERS

Wholesale licenses are the latest fashion, apparently, among liquor dealers. The greater number of the dealers in the country districts, who have held retail licenses in the past are now putting in applications to the Board of License Commissioners to have their licenses changed to the wholesale variety. As a matter of fact, the business of these people demands that they deliver their wet goods to their customers, and this they are not allowed to do under the retail license.

At the meeting of the Board of the License Commissioners held yesterday afternoon, J. P. Maderios and S. Osaki, both of Waialua, had their licenses changed from retail to wholesale. Two other licenses were changed from retail to wholesale last week. The wholesale license costs the liquor dealer $1000 per year, while a retail permit is but $750.

HANDICAPPED

This is the Case with Many Honolulu People.

Too many Honolulu citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest, and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief, but can not reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Backache Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Can you doubt Honolulu evidence?

John E. Bush, attached to the Hawaiian interpretation staff at the Supreme Court, living on Punchbowl street, Honolulu, Hawaii, says: "I had kidney trouble and, acting on the advice of a friend who had tried Doan's Backache Kidney Pills with good results, I procured a box at the Hollister Drug Co. They benefited me greatly, and in view of my experience, I know them to be an excellent medicine for kidney disorders."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50), or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

REFILING GARNISHEES.

County Attorney Cathcart has given it as his official opinion that all the garnishees have lapsed with the new administration, and consequently new ones have been filed on the old judgments in several cases. Harry T. Mills has refilled a garnishee against Cathcart, and three others that have come down from Tax Assessor Holt have also been refilled with the City and County Auditor.
